THE STORY OF RUTH

CV First 24th Annual
Women's Retreat
October 11-13, 2019

Mission Springs Conference Center - Scotts Valley, CA

Beloved

Throughout the Bible there are many stories of God's personal love, care, and provision. The story of Ruth is one of them. Join us as our speakers, delve into the scriptures and help see why each of us is called "beloved" by God.

Our Saturday Speaker

JoAnn Hedges

JoAnn served as a Bible Study Fellowship Teaching Leader for twenty-five years and has been a Sunday school teacher for children of all ages. She and her husband, Bob, were married for 52 years before he passed away in 2017. JoAnn has two adult children, a son-in-law, and an adorable six-years-old granddaughter. She is a member of Grace Bible Church in Pleasant Hill, where she serves as a deaconess.

Our Sunday Speaker

Wendy Lew Toda

Wendy is an artist, interactive speaker, and emotional wellness coach. She uses these talents to empower individuals and teams reconnect with what matters most to them, for their best good and for the good of those they love and lead. Wendy works in mixed media and kiln glass and especially loves creating with time, space, and people. She is regularly in awe at how God makes all things new, again and again and again. She has two-college-age kids and lives in San Jose.

Our Worship Leader

Jenn James

Jenn James has been attending CV First for over six years with her husband Kevin and her children, Sam (age 9) and Abby (age 6). She has a passion for worshipping the Lord in song and has served on both worship teams and in choirs at various churches in the Bay Area since 1998. She is a self-proclaimed foodie and enjoys writing, playing board games, reading, and watching comedy and science-fiction shows. Her favorite verses are John 14:27 and Psalm 146:2.
